

KBA Insurance, Inc.

2021 Continuing Education Sessions

Instructor: Carol Trimble, Norris Training Systems

Laws One - The presentation will explain the current changes in continuing education requirements associated with insurance license renewal and all other aspects concerning insurance law. This is a three-hour continuing education course for general education.

Money Laundering - The presentation will cover the history of money laundering dating back to Al Capone. The course explains the purpose of money laundering which is concealing the origination of money obtained illegally by depositing those funds in a bank or buying a whole life insurance product. The course will explain in more detail the way this process is done. This course is a two-hour general education continuing education class.

Ethics 1A - We will be discussing accepted standards of personal and business behavior, values and guiding principles. This course is a one-hour ethics class that will meet the qualification required to renew your license.

Instruction 9:00 AM to 12 noon and from 1:00 PM to 4:00 PM.

Space is limited to accommodate CDC guidelines for social distancing, so reserve your seat now. If conditions change and we're unable to host a live class, we will hold online classes on the same schedule.

If you are not sure of Continuing Education requirements, please contact the Kansas Insurance Department, Agents Division at (785) 296-3071.
