

Loan Department Specialist Trainee – Goodland, KS

Due to growth at FNB Bank, we are looking for the right person for our growing team! Agriculture-based bank needing a driven individual to fill the spot of Loan Department Specialist Trainee. Career advancement possibilities, based upon performance! Benefit package includes 401(k) plan, health/dental insurance, vacation, sick and personal leave, paid holidays, and more. Competitive wages!

Duties / Responsibilities:

- Analyze financial statements, tax returns, and cash flows to determine credit quality of current and/or potential customers
- Assist with the input of financial data into various computer systems
- Maintain compliance with established loan policies, procedures, laws and regulations
- Evaluate loan requests by preparing loan presentations and credit spreads
- Prepare multiple monthly reports pertaining to loan department information
- Orders and reviews real estate appraisals

Education and Training:

- Required:
 - Required college degree
 - Knowledge of Microsoft Office.
- Preferred Skills:
 - Professional written and verbal communication skills
 - Ability to work effectively and efficiently in a team-oriented environment
 - Initiative to finish projected deadlines and meet timelines
 - Detail oriented
 - Analytical skills
 - Trustworthiness to maintain strict confidentiality
 - Knowledge of agriculture and commercial business

If you qualify and feel you are the right fit for the FNB Team, please email your resume and contact information to jobs@fnb.com. If later selected for an interview, completion of an application will be required.

EOE/AA

Member FDIC