	Keeping Up with the Fraudsters - Terri Luttrell, Abrigo
	Fraud is one of the significant concerns among banks around the country as numbers continue to soar and fraudsters seem to stay one step ahead of the industry. The COVID-19 pandemic increased fraud losses exponentially, and it is not easing up. What does this mean for your institution? This session will discuss current fraud trends, lessons learned from the past, and how to prepare for future risk mitigation.
2:00 - 3:15 p.m.	General Session - West Ballroom
	Beyond Coping: A Candid Conversation about Resilience, Connection and Happiness in the Workplace - Johnny Crowder
	Crippling burnout. Chronic absenteeism. Rampant resignations. The multi-headed monster of compassion fatigue, longer working days and employee isolation are damming up the rivers of productivity at thousands of companies, and employers are concerned. Leveraging insights from his own decade-long mental health journey, Johnny Crowder shows audiences why talking about mental health should be as straightforward as talking about physical health, even in the workplace. And he shares the hard-won strategies for emotional wellbeing that led to the creation of his science-based breakthrough mental and emotional support app, Cope Notes, which is now in use in more than 90 countries.

2024 JIM MAAG GOLF TOURNAMENT
PAIRINGS REQUEST

AUGUST 9, 2024
THE BROADMOOR HOTEL

The KBA will make every effort to accommodate special requests for golf pairings. All other groups will be teamed according to handicaps. Please submit your pairings request using the form below no later than July 11. Requests after this date cannot be considered. Please note that this form is not a golf registration form...it is only used to submit a pairing if you have one. Your golf registration, also due by July 11, is included on the general registration form located in your brochure packet. Please direct questions to Natalie Wareham at nwareham@ksbankers.com, or Brenda Unruh at bunruh@ksbankers.com or call 785-232-3444.

Only full conference registrants may register to play in the Jim Maag Golf Scramble.
